SECTION A – DISCLOSURE ON MALAYSIAN CODE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Disclosures in this section are pursuant to Paragraph 15.25 of Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements.

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board of Directors of Paragon Union Berhad ("Paragon" or "the Company") ("Board") recognizes the importance of having an effective and dynamic Board to lead and control Paragon Industries Berhad and its Subsidiaries ("the Group"). This is to enhance long term shareholders' value and the interests of other stakeholders. The Group maintain a good mix of Board Members who have a wealth of experience, skills and expertise in areas relevant to steering the Group's businesses to the next level. The Board's roles and responsibilities are set out in the Company's Board Charter. The salient features of the Board Charter had been uploaded on the Company's website at www.paragon.com.my. While the day-to-day management of the operations of the Company is delegated to the Managing Director and was supported by the senior management team, the Board retains effective control over important policies and processes such as setting business direction, formulating strategies, internal controls, risk management and ensuring high standards of compliance in all relevant regulations. The Board has delegated specific responsibilities to various Board Committees namely the Audit Committee, Nomination and Remuneration Committee, and Risk Management Committee whose functions are within their respective terms of reference approved by the Board. The said terms of reference are periodically reviewed by the Board, as and when necessary. These Committees assist the Board in making informed decisions through in-depth discussions on issues in the discharge of the respective committees' terms of reference and responsibilities. The Chairmen of the various committees will report to the Board the outcome of the Committee meetings which will be recorded in the minutes of the Board meeting. The ultimate

	responsibility for decision-making, however, lies with the Board. There is a clear division of responsibility between the Chairman and Executive Director to ensure a balance of power and authority. The principal duties of the chairman are to conduct the meetings of the board and shareholders and to facilitate constructive discussions at these meetings. The Executive Director is responsible for the day-to-day running of the business of the Group and to implement strategies developed by the Board. The Group's approach to governance is to drive business revenues and profits and manage risk prudently in order to deliver long-term profitability and provide value to shareholders on a sustainable basis. This approach includes meeting the expectations of stakeholders such as customers, shareholders, regulators, bankers, strategic business partners and the communities in which the Group operates. The Board and Management view its commitment to Business Sustainability and Environmental, Social and Governance objectives as part of its responsibility to its stakeholders and the communities in which it operates. The Group is committed to the implementation of safe work practices and aims to provide an injury-free workplace for all its employees. The Group is committed to its continuous efforts in maintaining a delicate balance between its sustainability agenda and the shareholders' interest.

Practice 4.5- Step Up

The board identifies a designated person within management, to provide dedicated focus to manage sustainability strategically, including the integration of sustainability considerations in the operations of the company.

Note: The explanation on adoption of this practice should include a brief description of the responsibilities of the designated person and actions or measures undertaken pursuant to the role in the financial year.

Application	:	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:	The key management team led by the Managing Director, Mr Wong Ee-Coln to reports to the Board and is responsible for the oversight of sustainability practices, policies and procedures in improving sustainability performance.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.1

The Nomination Committee should ensure that the composition of the board is refreshed periodically. The tenure of each director should be reviewed by the Nomination Committee and annual re-election of a director should be contingent on a satisfactory evaluation of the director's performance and contribution to the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Nomination and Remuneration Committee ("NRC") reviewed the tenure of each Director and the composition of the Board. It was noted that none of the Independent Directors has served more than 9 years on the Board. The current Board size of six (6) members is appropriate to enable the Board to carry out its responsibilities in an effective and efficient manner. The current composition of the Board also reflects a good mix of directors with diverse professional backgrounds and a wide range of experiences in business, finance, compliance and general management that contribute effectively to leading and directing the management and affairs of the Group. The NRC also reviewed and assessed the performance and contribution of each of the retiring Directors in order to determine the eligibility of the Directors to stand for re-election at this coming AGM. Based on the results of the respective Directors' performance evaluation conducted, the NRC is satisfied with the Directors' performance and the level of contribution to the Board through their knowledge, skills and commitment as well as their abilities to act in the best interest of the Company. In addition, each of the Independent Directors has also provided his/her annual declaration/confirmation of independence.

Practice 5.4 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years without further extension.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.

Application :	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice :

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NRC will recommend to the Board on suitable candidates for appointment as Board members, member of Board Committees and Executive Directors of the Company based on the following evaluation criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• skills, knowledge, expertise and experience;• professionalism;• time commitment to effectively discharge his role as a director;• contribution and performance;• character, integrity and competence;• boardroom diversity including gender diversity; and• in the case of candidates for the position of Independent Non-Executive Directors, the Nomination Committee shall also evaluate the candidates' ability to discharge such responsibilities/functions as are expected from independent non-executive directors. This helps to ensure an appropriate balance between the experience perspectives of the long-term directors and new perspectives that bring fresh insights to the Board. The appointment of key senior management was also made with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age and cultural background.

Practice 5.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Appointment of new Directors are undertaken by the Board as a whole after considering the recommendations of the NRC. Potential candidates may be proposed by any current Board member, shareholder or senior management personnel or by utilising independent sources such as Institute of Corporate Directors Malaysia (ICDM). In considering potential candidates for appointment, the NRC undertakes a thorough review of the candidate's criteria, amongst others, qualifications, skills, knowledge, expertise, experience, personal attributes and the capability to devote the necessary time and commitment to the role.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	: The NRC annually performs an assessment of the effectiveness and performance of the Board, Board Committees and individual Director, in order to verify that the Board is functioning appropriately as a whole. Each Director completed a detailed questionnaires in the Directors' Performance Evaluation which covered matters relevant to the Board performance, amongst others, contribution to interaction, quality of input, understanding of role and personal developments. An evaluation of each Board Committee was done by assessing the structure, roles and responsibilities, performance of the respective Chairman, as well as Committee's performance against its terms of reference. The assessment was internally facilitated, whereby results of the assessments had been compiled, documented and reported to the Board accordingly, as part of the Company's ongoing corporate governance practices. Based on the results of the assessment for the financial year ended 31 December 2023, it was concluded that the composition of the Board and its Committees corresponding to its oversight duties and the developments of the Company. Overall, the Board was satisfied with the performance of individual Director, Board and Board Committees for the financial year under review, including the character, experience, integrity, competencies and time commitment to effectively discharge their roles as Director of the Company.

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.1

The board has remuneration policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The remuneration policies and practices should appropriately reflect the different roles and responsibilities of non-executive directors, executive directors and senior management. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	On a yearly basis, the NRC review and recommend to the Board the remuneration packages of the Executive Directors, while the remuneration for the Non-Executive Directors was determined by the Board as a whole. In making its recommendation, the NRC considers the principles set out in the Board Remuneration Policy. The Policy, which covers remuneration for the Directors and key Senior Management personnel, was established with the objective to guide the Group in attracting, retaining and motivating highly qualified individuals to serve on the Board and Key Senior Management team. The Executive Directors and Key Senior Management are subject to an annual performance process. The individual performance rating serves as a basis to determine their variable compensation payments and thereby rewards individual performance. The Board Remuneration Policy also covers bonus framework for the Executive Directors and Key Senior Management, which link their appraisal process to specific reward and incentive outcomes. The appraisal process will assess the individual performance against the Key Performance Indicator targets and competency capability in meeting the Group's core values and Leadership and Management Expectations.
